

DIVORCE SUIT ENDS BRIGHT CAREER OF MEMBER OF HOUSE

Like Parnell and Vilke, English Statesman is Driven Out of Public Life by Ugly Scandal.

BY ED. L. KEENE.
LONDON, July 28.—England is having a lot of trouble these days trying to decide just how far the private conduct of a public man affects the value of his service to the state. On top of the recent turmoil over the dealings of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George and Attorney-General Sir Rufus Isaacs in American Marconi shares, comes the case of the brilliant Liberal, Capt. Elliott Crawshaw-Williams, until a short time ago member of parliament for Leicester.

When Hubert William Carr-Gomm, also Liberal, representing the London district of Rotherhithe in parliament whose young and beautiful wife had been one of the most popular members of English society, brought suit for divorce, the name Crawshaw-Williams as co-respondent. Purely in deference to public opinion and to precedent Crawshaw-Williams at once resigned. As Leicester is strong Nonconformist center, and as Crawshaw-Williams is a Nonconformist himself, prompt and vigorous attack began upon him throughout the district. The Leicester Mail, led the onslaught.

Crawshaw-Williams' peculiar creed has produced widespread public discussion. It is altogether unlikely that he will be able to break down past traditions. A note of tragedy is added to the case that he is a man of strong ambitions as well as of signal ability. Only 34 years of age, and having been parliamentary secretary to the chancellor of the exchequer, his early promotion to the ministerial bench was practically assured, but the divorce suit undoubtedly means his political extinction.

History is Recalled.
It is recalled that similar suits were responsible for the ruin of such men as the late Sir Charles Dilke and Charles Stuart Parnell. Dilke was a cabinet minister, when he was named in a divorce proceeding, and his resignation and retirement from parliament followed immediately. Some half a dozen years later he re-entered parliament and remained there nearly 20 years, but no liberal premier dared outrage the public opinion by including in his cabinet perhaps the most brilliant politician of the past 30 years. After the famous O'Shea divorce case, Gladstone and other English liberals requested Parnell to retire from the chairmanship of the Irish party, and although he declined he was outvoted by his followers, 44 of whom deposed him in favor of the late Justin McCarthy. At the 1892 election only nine Parnellites were returned out of 81 and the great Irish leader died a broken-hearted man.

In English court circles connection with divorce cases has long been frowned upon, the late Queen Victoria barring even the innocent parties, King Edward relaxed the rule slightly, receiving innocent parties and even occasionally recognizing co-respondents who had been unable to disprove the charges against them. This, however, was never on great state occasions, and under the puritan rule of Queen Mary divorces and co-respondents are totally excluded. Much comment was caused recently by the presence of Lord Hamilton of Dalziel at the Derby day banquet given by King George, but the banquet was given to members of the Jockey club, and it being a private affair for men only, the king evidently saw no reason for barring Lord Hamilton, who was co-respondent in the divorce suit brought by Hon. William Lawson a couple of years ago. Hamilton, who formerly a lord-in-waiting to the king, married the lady immediately after the divorce, but neither he, nor his wife are officially received at court.

The domestic infidelities of the ducal houses of Westminster and Marlborough have resulted in the exclusion from court of the dukes, though no actual legal proceedings have been taken. Both the duchesses, however, are still received by Queen Mary.

Duchess in Crusade.
The leading figure in the widespread campaign of tax resistance as a part of the woman's suffrage crusade is the duchess of Bedford. Following her refusal to pay taxes, the government levied on the Princess Skating club, of which she is the owner.

"My reason for resisting the payment of a property tax," she explained today, "is that I consider it unjust that women should have to pay taxes when they have no hand or voice in the making of the laws which enforce them. I also wish it to be known that in spite of the tactics adopted by the Women's Social and Political Union, I am not deterred from declaring myself in favor of modified woman suffrage."

A JURY OF PHYSICIANS

Doubtless many who have read our announcements have seen "They were not genuine cases of Bright's Disease." Then how about cases like this?

R. C. Pell, corner of Broadway and Battery Streets, is the manager of one of San Francisco's big corporations. He had a son who had Bright's Disease. He was greatly swollen with dropsy and a United States Army surgeon was called in. He reported the case Bright's and incurable. Although Pell had great confidence in the physician he called in another. After careful examination he corroborated the Army surgeon's report. They told him he could not.

He thereupon put the patient on Fenton's Resol Compound. He began to mend and in six months was well, but the father could hardly credit it. He took a sample to a third physician. He reported it normal. To be absolutely certain he called in a fourth physician for a last analysis. He also reported it normal.

As to the permanence of the results obtained in this case, this was eight years ago and the patient, now a young man, is in business in San Francisco.

There are many women in favor of the franchise who have not given the movement any public support, because they do not wish to be identified with militancy. By this holding back they lend support to the impression that there is no great demand among women for the franchise. There are also many women who have not studied the question at all and who associate it only with the breaking of windows and the burning of houses. If these women went into the study of woman suffrage they undoubtedly would become ardent crusaders for the cause."

REBELS CAPTURED BY CHINESE POLICE

Japan Blamed For the Present Revolution by Residents of Shanghai—City Jails Are Empty.

SHANGHAI, July 28.—In accordance with a proclamation issued Saturday, the municipal police, reinforced by a strong body of Shanghai volunteers, went Sunday to the rebel headquarters at Chape, immediately north of the foreign boundary, where they disarmed 500 soldiers and 12 officers and took six 3-inch guns.

Reports have it that American, British and other foreign bluejackets are patrolling the settlement, and the Chape boundaries.

The rebels Saturday morning captured the Lenching, a Chinese admiralty yacht, which it is believed was bringing dispatches to Shanghai. The departure of transports from Chefoo points to the probability of a battle at the Wu Sung arsenal.

During the last 30 hours all has been quiet and the soldiers have been employing their leisure time in constructing wire entanglements on the roads.

Due to the escape of all the prisoners from the city jail, lawlessness in the native districts surrounding the foreign settlements is increasing.

There have been not a few cases of incendiarism for the purpose of plunder. The Chinese are loud in their denunciations of the Japanese, whose assistance is held to have been mainly responsible for the success of the revolt, from which the business community, unlike in 1911, has markedly abstained from taking part. There are wild rumors in circulation that the Japanese have been "sent back" by the rebels, and it seems undeniable that some material assistance in the way of money and military instructors has been lent the rebels in unofficial Japanese quarters.

Philanthropists already have taken sufficient measures and fugitives are given free food and shelter.

BULGARIANS ROUTED BY THE GREEK ARMY

Turks Have Made a Human Slaughter House of the Territory Around Melgara, According to Reports.

LONDON, July 28.—The Balkan peace conference is expected to open at Bucharest next Monday, but meantime, serious fighting continues. The Greeks refused Bulgaria's request for even a three days' truce, and after heavy fighting, have got through Kresna pass, inflicting a defeat on the Bulgarians at Simelke, capturing three guns and driving the Bulgarians back on Djuma.

The Greeks claim they annihilated the whole left of the Bulgarian army and that they have forced the Bulgarians back along the Struma valley, clear to Djuma on the Bulgarian frontier. Unless peace speedily is negotiated another great battle is likely to occur at Struma.

The concert of the powers seems as powerless as before to adopt any united action against Turkey. The porte, however, has disavowed the action of its troops in penetrating old Bulgaria and no further advance of Turkish troops has been reported. The Turks claim their spoils at Adrianople consisted of 150 guns, 50,000 rifles and 1,000,000 sacks of corn. There are frequent reports of atrocities and massacres by Bulgarians.

The Turkish commander-in-chief reports that Bulgarians murdered 200 Ottoman soldiers who had been taken prisoners near Kistly Enkle, while an admission of Turkish massacres of Armenians at Malgara and Rodosto comes in a report from Constantinople that a number of Moslems have been sentenced to death or to long terms of imprisonment for implication in the massacres.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 28.—Trustworthy reports of appalling massacres and devastation by Turkish irregular troops came from districts in Thrace, which the Turks are reoccupying. The country about Malgara, in the east of Gallipoli, according to reports, has been converted into a human slaughter house. The Bulgarians pillaged and burned the Moslem villages and massacred their inhabitants, and now the Turks are wreaking dreadful vengeance on the Christian villages which the Bulgarians spared.

NEW HOME FOR MOOSE ORPHANS DEDICATED

Vice Pres. Marshall Says the Sign "P C" Often Means Plow Corn.

AURORA, Ill., July 28.—"Too many persons who see the sign 'P C' in the heavens think it means 'Preach Christ' when it means 'Plow Corn,'" said Vice Pres. Thomas R. Marshall Sunday in addressing 20,000 persons who had gathered at Mooseheart, Ill., attending the dedication of the Moose Orphans' home. The institution is to be erected by the Loyal Order of Moose.

"Out of the superior educational advantages of today," Mr. Marshall said, "one unhappy corollary has developed. A vast army of persons whose labors would make for the industrial advancement of the nation have conceived themselves fitted for fancied nobler pursuits, and thus the progress they have made in the work they are fitted for is lost."

Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Illinois, Cong. Copely of Aurora, Ill., and Ralph W. Edoness of New Jersey, supreme dictator of the Moose organization, were among the speakers at the corner stone laying.

GOV. COX TAKES A SLAM AT MARSHALL

DAYTON, O., July 28.—A denial of any part or the whole of his letter to James A. Emery, regarding the alleged "deal" for the site for the Dayton postoffice, was offered by A. C. Marshall of Dayton to Gov. Cox Sunday, according to a statement given out by the governor at his country home near here.

At Columbus Gov. Cox made public a letter which he had written Mr. Marshall, calling on him to make a public retraction or correction of the Emery letter which figured Friday in the testimony of Martin M. Mulhall, ex-lobbyist for the National Manufacturers' association, before the senate lobby investigating committee.

The offer was made to a representative of the governor, and although conveyed to him verbatim, was not accepted in fulfillment of his demands. Mr. Marshall was told that the statement would have to be made publicly through the governor's legal representatives in this city.

"The die is cast," said the governor.
